FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*Inogen Announces Management Changes

Goleta, California, August 28, 2018 — Inogen, Inc. (NASDAQ: INGN), a medical technology company offering innovative respiratory products for use in the homecare setting, today announced that after nearly 15 years of dedicated support to Inogen's growth and success, Matt Scribner, Inogen's Executive Vice President of Operations, plans to leave Inogen effective January 2nd, 2019. The Company has appointed Bart Sanford as Inogen's Executive Vice President of Operations effective September 17th, 2018. Matt plans to facilitate a transition to ensure an orderly and effective shift of responsibilities. Most recently, Bart was Senior Vice President of Operations at Cepheid Inc., a molecular diagnostics company and subsidiary of Danaher Corporation.

"Matt has been a part of the Company's success and I want to thank him for his many contributions to Inogen over the years and wish him the best in his future endeavors," said Chief Executive Officer, Scott Wilkinson. "We are looking forward to Bart's contributions as we continue to drive portable oxygen concentrators to become the standard of care for ambulatory oxygen patients worldwide in this large and growing market."
